

Madhur Mehta

Experience

Madhur heads the Global Compensation Centre of Excellence for Western Union and covers 58 countries as part of his role that focuses on providing global compensation program design and management support to the organization. Prior to this, he was the HR Director for MakeMyTrip.com, one of the most successful e-commerce ventures in India and the largest Online Travel firm in Asia.

He has worked across various continents with stints in the Middle East and Western Europe and is credited with being one of the youngest diplomatic status holders during his time in Geneva, Switzerland where he worked in the capacity of the compensation and benefits head for a “not for profit” organization called The Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis & Malaria that spun-off from the United Nations in 2009

Having also worked with leading consulting firms like Aon Hewitt in India and Mercer in the Middle East, Madhur has advised clients across various sectors on compensation strategy design and implementation and trained more than 100 middle and senior management reward professionals within this domain.

Education

Madhur is an Economics graduate from Delhi University and went on to complete his Post Graduation (MBA) from Shri Ram College of Commerce. He also has an executive leadership certification from Thunderbird School of Global Management, USA to this credit.